

Oracle Developer with OA Framework

Location: Cleveland, OH

Duration: Long Term

Job Description:

Work with a very talented and dynamic team to enrich a world class application- Be a key contributor from the start by proactively contributing to the formation of practical and high quality solutions - Construct designs for key components of the Lease Management solution based on requirements and using your analytical skills - Take technical responsibility for key components of the Oracle Lease Management solution- Demonstrate ability to understand complex areas of financial businesses and lead the design of quality solutions.- Take personal responsibility for delivery of market-leading software components- Design, Build, Test, Maintain, Enhance and Document a world class application- Ensure appropriate use of the latest Oracle Tools and Technology- Write technical specifications to address business requirements.

Qualifications:

Strong knowledge of applications development process (design, coding, testing, packaging, maintenance)- Excellent analytical and problem solving skills- Strong experience with Oracle Applications in one or more of the AR, AP, Collections, Assets modules, cross-module key Financials product development initiatives - Strong technical skills (Oracle RDBMS, SQL, PL/SQL, Unix, Java, OA Framework) - Confident team player, with good verbal and written communications skills - Achiever, result-oriented- Knowledge of Oracle's Applications development

Desirable:

Hands-on experience of OA Framework / JRAD- Functional experience of the equipment leasing industry- Practical performance tuning experience - Experience of leading or working with high achievers of different cultural and language background